

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction	1
Antía Mato Bouzas
Part I. Cosmopolitanism, Belonging, and National Imaginaries
Chapter 1 Exhibiting Tolerance: Citizenship, Contingency, and Contemporary Art in the UAE Pavilion, 2009–2017	21
Elizabeth Derderian
Chapter 2 The Gulf as an Unhomely Home: Reconfiguring Citizenship and Belonging in Diasporic Narratives on Second-Generation Migrants	43
Nadeen Dakkak
Chapter 3 Navigating the Cosmopolitan City: Emirati Women and Ambivalent Forms of Belonging in Dubai	67
Rana AlMutawa
Part II. Aspirational Gulf
Chapter 4 Dubai as Heterotopia? The Aspirational Politics of Everyday Cosmopolitanism in Gulf Space	89
Jaafar Alloul
Chapter 5. A Strangeness One Can Occupy: Clothes and Their Codes in the Photographs of Gulf Migrants from Kerala	115
Mohamed Shafeeq Karinkurayil

Conclusion	The Gulf Space in Words: In Dialogue with Author Deepak Unnikrishnan Lorenzo Casini and Deepak Unnikrishnan	135
Index		154