

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction. The Anthropological Study of Schools: Presenting European Anthropology of Education Laura Gilliam and Christa Markom	1
PART I. Constructing and Handling Difference and Sameness in the Everyday of School
Chapter 1. Rendering Sameness and Difference Pedagogical: Care for Kindergarten Pupils in a Stigmatized Swiss Suburb Ursina Jaeger	51
Chapter 2. Teaching Equality, Teaching Hierarchy: Moral Lessons in the Schools of the Danish Welfare State Laura Gilliam	75
Chapter 3. Approaching Difference through Control or Care: Diverging School Ethos in the Norwegian Unified School Ingrid Smette	99
Chapter 4. “Silencing” or “Being Silent” from a Child- Centered Perspective: Accomplices to the Invisibility of Differences in an Austrian School Christa Markom	122

PART II. Constructing and Handling Difference and Sameness through the Policies, Curriculum, and Structures of School

Chapter 5. Schooling and Age Imaginaries: Establishing the Foundations of Sameness and Difference in an English Secondary School Patrick Alexander	147
Chapter 6. Education and Integration of the Others: Roma Education in the Czech Republic Markéta Levínská, David Doubek, and Dana Bittnerová	171
Chapter 7. Regionalism and Minority Identities in Putin's Russia: Ethnographic Perspectives on School Education and Belonging Dilyara Müller-Suleymanova	196
Chapter 8. Activating Muslims: Citizenship in Dutch Islamic Schools Jamal Abajaj, Martijn de Koning, and Thijl Sunier	221
Chapter 9. Teaching History and Performing the Nation: The Production of National Citizens in Greek Primary Education Ioannis Manos	244
PART III. Special Contributions
Chapter 10. Anthropology and/in Intercultural Education in Italy: The Winding Roads to Diversity and Identity Francesca Gobbo	271
Chapter 11. Civil Enculturation in the Netherlands, Britain, Germany, and France: A Look Back and Ahead Sabine Mannitz and Thijl Sunier	295
Afterword. Toward an Anthropology of Education in Europe: Insights, Challenges, and Potentials Spyros Spyrou	319
Index	343