

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction. Theorizing Textual, Visual and Performative Approaches to Recent Migration to Europe Nelson González Ortega	1
Part I. European Migration Represented in Testimonies and Novels
Chapter 1. Othering and the Mutual Construction of (Trans)National Identities and Citizenship in Contemporary African and Spanish Migration Narratives: A Decolonial Reading Nelson González Ortega	19
Chapter 2. Border Crossings, Religious Identities and Collective Writing in Pathé Cissé's La Tierra Prometida/Diario de un Emigrante: La Terre Promise/Journal d'un Emigrant Carles Magrinyà Badiella	39
Chapter 3. Migrant Literature Migrating: The Case of Fatou Diome's Le ventre de l'Atlantique and Its Reception in Sweden Mattias Aronsson	53
Chapter 4. Can Migration Narratives Change Public Conceptions of Borders? The Somali-Norwegian Borderscape in Roda Ahmed's Forberedelsen and Its Medial Reception Johan Schimanski	71
Chapter 5. Reflections on Transitional Borderscapes: Performing the Migrant Self in Written and Audiovisual Testimony Ana Belén Martínez García	89

Part II. European Migration Represented in the Media

Chapter 6. The Visualization of the ‘Refugee Crisis’ of 2015–2016:
A Case Study of a Croatian Online News Source 109
Ljiljana Šarić

Chapter 7. Crossing the Border between Two Spaces: Narration about the Migrant Crisis of 2015–2016 in Italian Newspapers 131
Elizaveta Khachatryan

Part III. European Migration Represented in Contemporary European Cinema

Chapter 8. Border, Space and the Body in the Films Beautiful and Victoria 151
Carolina León Vegas

Chapter 9. Erratic Bodies in European Cinema: A Radiography of Nations and Clandestine Bodies 167
Laura Camacho Salgado

Part IV. European Migration Represented in Theatre and Artworks as Migrants’ Counter-Discourse or Artivism

Chapter 10. Injurious Metaphors and (Non-)Art as Activist
Counter-Discourse to Greece’s ‘Refugee Crisis’ 187
Olga Michael and Jovana Mastilovic

Chapter 11. Who Marks the Borders of the (Un)Known?
The Dynamics of Relational Reflexivity in the Production of a Play on Forced Mobility in Northern Portugal 208
Elizabeth Challinor

Conclusion. Migration, Border Aesthetics and Discursive Strategies 224
Ana Belén Martínez García

Index 233