

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	viii
Acknowledgements	x
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	1
Part I. Sociomedical Discourses	33
Chapter 1. Sex and the Cities: Mapping Queer Feminine Desires	35
Chapter 2. Sexual Science: The Queer Feminine Mystique	82
Part II. Community Discourses	125
Chapter 3. Fashioning Femininities in The Girlfriend (1924–33) and Women’s Love (1926–32)	139
Chapter 4. Marys and Mollys: Identifying Queer Feminine Desires on the Dutch Press Landscape	184
Part III. Literary Discourses	231
Chapter 5. A Mother’s Love: Eva Raedt-de Canter’s Boarding School (1930) and Christa Winsloe’s The Girl Manuela (1933)	243
Chapter 6. When Object Becomes Subject: Feminine Protagonists in Anna Elisabet Weirauch’s The Scorpion Trilogy (1919–31) and Josine Reuling’s Back to the Island (1937)	286
Conclusion	331
Bibliography	339
Index	357