

CONTENTS

List of Figures	vii
Preface	ix
1. Introduction Stephen Gudeman	1
2. Simplicity in Economic Anthropology: Persuasion, Form, and Substance James G. Carrier	15
3. When Rhetoric Becomes Mass Persuasion: The Case of the Concept of Interest Richard Swedberg	31
4. The New Social Science Imperialism and the Problem of Knowledge in Contemporary Economics William Milberg	43
5. The Persuasions of Economics Stephen Gudeman	62
6. Conversations Between Anthropologists and Economists Metin M. Cosgel	81
7. “The Craving for Intelligibility:” Speech and Silence on the Economy under Structural Adjustment and Military Rule in Nigeria Jane I. Guyer with LaRay Denzer	97

8. Mass-gifts: On Market Giving in Advanced Capitalist Societies Nurit Bird-David and Asaf Darr	118
9. The Persuasive Power of Money Keith Hart	136
10. The Money Rhetoric in the United States Ruben George Oliven	159
11. The Third Way: A Cultural Economic Perspective Arjo Klamer	176
Contributors	201
References	204
Index	224