

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction	1
Methods of Field Research	8
Introducing the Enterprises and the Participants of the Study	13
Part I Memories of the Planned Economy
1. Ideology and Practice of the Plan	23
Planning Scarcity	25
Politics before Economics	32
2. Pact of Plan Fulfilment	39
Democratic Centralism in the Enterprise	40
Autonomy and Drudgery	43
Discipline and Motivation	49
3. Socialism as Performance	59
Living, Learning and Working the Socialist Way	61
Covertly ...	69
4. Party Rule in the Enterprise	77
Party and Career	79
Party Control	83
The Freedom to Think Differently	89
Perestroika in the Enterprise	92
Part II The Wende
5. Privatisation – Domination and Possession	103
Covert Criticism becomes Loud	105
From 'People-owned' to Privately Owned Property	108

6.	Market Delusion	123
	Marketing	125
	Working for the Market	135
	Picture of the Prevailing Mood after Two Years of
	Short-time Work	140
	Consumption	141
7.	Worldviews at the Time of the Wende	145
	The Construction of Two German Cultures	147
	The Idea of Socialism	157
Part III Joining the World Economy
8.	Hochinauf's Mission in East Germany	169
	Strategies of Expansion	171
	The Missionaries of the Market Economy	175
	The Hochinauf 'Family'	179
9.	Two Careers in the Market Economy	185
	A Model for Success	185
	Adaptation and Refusal	187
	Self-discipline and Eigensinn	199
10.	Unification and Individualization	203
	Pressure to Achieve versus Scientifically
	Determinable Productivity	204
	'Paradise' or the Successful Integration	209
	Collectivity and Competititon	213
Conclusion		221
Bibliography		229
Index		237