

INDEX

NOTE: page numbers in italic figures refer to captions to illustrations

A

- AAA see American Anthropological Association
- academic/applied anthropology dichotomy
British colonial administration 6, 116–17 in a development context 119 grappling with the distinction 6–9, 84 historical perspective 27–34, 50, 51
- access, for anthropological project 192, 196–97
- Action Committee for Employment and Training in Applied Anthropology 38
- action research in the NHS 156, 157, 160
- advocacy role for anthropology 118–19
- aid to developing countries, changing modalities 120
- AinA see Anthropology in Action
- Akeroyd, Anne 29, 32
- Albania
culture and ‘traditions of violence’ 210–14, 216, 221
insight into social processes 216
- Albanian migrants, anthropologist as expert witness 209–25
- American Anthropological Association (AAA), ethical guidelines 198
- analysis, anthropological way of thinking 103–4
- anonymity, observed in filming The Hunt 196
- anthropology
as a brand 73, 131
contribution to government 130–42 definition 9–11
and ethnography 84–88
expectations outside academia 206 fearless in the face of incomprehension 135–36
informing development 121–25
in multidisciplinary context 14–16, 101–6, 107 opportunity to redraw agenda 88
in policy and practice 27–51
in post-colonial era 117–19
professional identity 3, 4, 9–11
reputation and influence 15–19
see also academic/applied anthropology dichotomy;
applied anthropology;
ethnography; social anthropology; visual anthropology
- Anthropology in Action* (AinA) 6, 9, 27, 47
in a changing context 47–51
networking and events 50

- 'Anthropology at Work' (workshop) 34
- Anthropology Training and Education (ATE) 40
merging into AinA 40
see also professional training
- Applications of Anthropology (seminar) 3, 23
- applied anthropology
applicability 72, 73, 74
the case for 62–63
defined 10–11
future in Britain 19–20
professional identity 3, 4, 9–11, 15–17, 57, 73, 102–6
role in 'Research Industry' 92–95
see also academic/applied anthropology dichotomy; anthropology; social anthropology; visual anthropology
- Applied Anthropology Group 33
- Ardener, Edwin 29
- ASA see Association of Social Anthropologists
- Association of Social Anthropologists (ASA) 3, 5, 23, 55
academic/applied anthropology debate 6, 68–69
Action Committee 37–38
Applied Anthropology Network 20
in changing context 47–51
Decennial Conference 36–39, 56
ethical guidelines 198
joint working group with RAI 35, 36 postgraduate employment outside academy 29–33 training in applied anthropology 20
- asylum, anthropological perspective 211
- asylum cases
interface of representations 217–23
- role of expert witness 214–17
- asylum seekers
socio-cultural issues at home 210
see also refugees
- ATE see Anthropology Training and Education (ATE)
- Australia
'anthropologist as advocate' 118–19
Hindmarsh Island case 16–17
- B
- Barbira, François 184
- Baric, Lorraine 29, 32
- Barley, Nigel 175
- Barnes, Robert H. 172
- BASAPP see British Association for Anthropology in Policy and Practice
- Beckham, Mike 174
- Blake, John 172
- Blakely, Mike 174, 176
- blood feuding, Albanian culture 212, 213, 216, 219, 222–23
- Booker Bros McConnell and Co. Ltd, proposed research project 68
- Brazil, cultural censorship 146, 160
- Britain
colonial administration 117 experience of applied anthropology 4–5, 6–7 field research contrasted with Romania 105
see also names of ministries and departments
- British Association for Anthropology in Policy and Practice (BASAPP) 9, 27, 40
- British Medical Anthropology Society 40
- Burns Commission of Inquiry into Hunting and Dogs 201–3
- Butler, David 32

C

- C-SAP see Centre for learning and teaching in Sociology, Anthropology and Politics
- career options see employment
- Centre for learning and teaching in Sociology, Anthropology and Politics (C-SAP) 5
- change management, at a District General Hospital 156–59, 160–61
- charging for research 98
- civil service, applications of anthropology 130–42
- Clarke, Graham 32
- clinical governance, mechanism of control 159
- cluster analysis, market research 95–96
- Colonial Social Science Research Council (CSSRC) 4–5
- commerce and industry, employment of anthropologists 31
- commercial research see market research
- communal silence, cultural censorship 146–47, 159, 160
- communication
anthropology and cultural translation 138–39
propagation of key terms 104
- complexity, ‘great unexplored frontier’ 135
- Conlin, Sean 32
- pedagogy for training 36
- consent
for filming foxhunting 192, 196–97 relationship with research participants 198–99
- consent forms, reactions of informants 106
- consultancy role, reporting to hunting enquiry 201–3
- consumer consultancy 97–98
- continuity of care, NHS staffing management 158
- contract cleaning, concerns in NHS 151
- costing research 98
- Countryside Alliance 203–4, 205
- court proceedings
Albanian asylum seekers 209–25
impact of foxhunting ban 203–4
- credibility, decisive issue in asylum cases 219–21
- criminal cases
Albanian cultural background 210
role of expert witness 216
- cross-cultural comparison, academic/applied anthropology 6–7
- CSSRC see Colonial Social Science Research Council
- cultural brokeridge, new role for anthropology 118, 120
- cultural censorship 146–47, 159, 160
- cultural construction 116
- cultural modelling 96–97
- ‘cultural probes’, ethnography in practice 81, 85
- cultural processes, of foxhunting 193–94, 202
- cultural relativism, applications of anthropology to television 171
- cultural representations
role of expert witness 211–14, 216–17, 224–25
social development 123
- cumulative nature of research 163–64
- D
- data, commodity/ gift form 105
- debt relief, HIPC programme 121
- decision support 133, 137–38
- defence research, anthropology’s contribution 132–33
- Department for International Development (DfID) 46
downsizing 122
- Department for Scientific and Industrial Research (DSIR) 64

- depth interviews, market research methodology 96
- design anthropology 95
case for ethnographic techniques 99–101
- development
asymmetries of interactions 113–14 changing modalities for assistance 120 defined in policy terms 114
informed by anthropological knowledge 121–25
institutional context 112–15, 117, 120–21
'local consultancy' 120
'participatory approaches' 118 poverty reduction strategies 114, 121–22 relationship with anthropology 18–19, 31, 46
see also social development
- DfID see Department for International Development
- diary, communicating research findings 81, 85
- Disappearing World* (TV series) 171, 172, 173, 174, 176, 179
- District Health Authority, structural inequalities 158
- 'docu-soaps' 179, 181, 182
replaced by 'reality show' formats 183
- documentary film-making see film-making
- domestic assistants in the NHS 149–51
- Douglas, Mary 7
- drugs and drug-taking, television anthropology 184
- DSIR see Department for Scientific and Industrial Research
- Dust and Ashes* (film) 185–86
- E
- Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC)
funding priorities 57 grant application process 8 training guidelines 48
- editorial control, documentary film-making 200
- education see professional training
- employment
Action Committee for Employment and Training in Applied Anthropology 38 career options 95–100
'Forum on the Employment of Anthropologists' 34–35
of postgraduates outside academy 29–33
- employment patterns, nurses leaving NHS 151–55
- Epstein, Bill 29
- ESRC see Economic and Social Research Council
- ethics
'anthropologist as advocate' 118–19
asylum applications 210, 217 filming the world of foxhunting 196 guidelines 12–13, 198
implications of new working contexts 11–13 reporting on nurse turnover 154–55
'ethnographic films' 182
'ethnographic script', framework for fieldworkers 80, 82, 83
- ethnography
Albania and Kosovo 210
alternative reservoir of data 93 application to design anthropology 99–101 communication of findings 83 countering scepticism 78–79 disturbing nature of findings 160
in market research 90–107

- methodological developments
13–14
- a new way of ‘doing’
anthropology 85
- range of research approaches
85–86
- report to hunting enquiry 202–3
- research dilemmas in NHS
147–48
- as a research methodology 73, 74, 76–83
- see also* anthropology; applied anthropology; social anthropology, visual
anthropology
- ethnography/anthropology present and potential relationships 84–87
within and outside the academy 87–88
- Europa Eutopia* (film series) 180
- Evans-Pritchard, E. 4, 6
- exchange, between informants and clients 104–6
- expert witness
Albanian asylum cases 209–25
role in legal arena 214–17
- F
- Fagg, William 58, 61
- Farage, Nigel 180
- fees and pricing of research 98
- fieldworking
anthropological 95
in documentary television 171
field encounter 163
in the NHS 149–59
particular responsibilities 206
see also participant observation
- film-making anthropologist as gatekeeper 194–201
observational cinema 177
proposals for a film about
foxhunting 194
training for anthropologists 170–87
- Firth, Raymond 4, 62, 67, 68
- focus group discussions
ethnographic approach 76, 77, 78 market research methodologies
93
- Fortes, Meyer 58
- Forward Planning (FP), in public service 140–41
- foxhunting
an anthropological perspective 191–206
impact of ban in Scotland 203–4
- FP see Forward Planning
- France, colonial governance 117
- French, Dominic 176
- funding
anthropology’s reliance on state
funding 57
concern over UGC cuts 28–31
dilemmas of commercial sponsorship 55–69
- G
- GAPP see Group for Anthropology
in Policy and Practice
- ‘gatekeeper’ role,
anthropologist/associate film producer 194–201
- Geneva Convention on Refugees
219, 222–23
- government, applications of
anthropology 130–42
- Gowler, Dan 32
- Granada Centre for Visual
Anthropology 175, 178, 187
graduates 183, 184
M.A. in Visual Anthropology
176
- Granada Television 171
- Griffiths Report 157
- Grillo, Ralph 29, 32, 37
Grillo Report 36–39, 45, 48
- Group for Anthropology in Policy and Practice (GAPP) 9, 27, 28
academic/applied dichotomy 6, 8, 51

- in a changing context 47–51
 - conferences and publications 44–45
 - defining aims 42–43
 - establishment of sector subgroups 35
 - inauguration of group 33–36
 - merging into AinA 40
 - networking 44
 - pedagogy for training 36
 - training initiatives 35–39
 - undergraduate teaching 46, 48
 - vocational practice courses 39, 45–46
 - group discussions
 - ethnographic approach 76, 77, 78
 - market research methodologies 93
- H
- Harvey, Penny 176
 - Heads of Anthropology Departments 30
 - Henriques, Fernando 64
 - Herero community, Southern Africa 116
 - hierarchies, medical workers 149–50
 - Highly Indebted Poor Countries (HIPC) 121
 - Hindmarsh Island case 16–77
 - Hinduism, television anthropology 185–86
 - HIPC see Highly Indebted Poor Countries
 - historical context of anthropology 4–5
 - policy and practice 27–51
 - Home Office, policy and practice on asylum seekers 218, 220–23
 - homicide, insight into motives 216–17
 - homosexuality, social vulnerability in Albanian culture 212, 216
 - ‘honour killings’, Albanian culture 212–13
 - hospital management, ethnography in NHS 156–59, 160–61
 - household studies, ethnography in practice 79–80, 81–83
 - ‘human encounter metaphor’, and anthropological knowledge 163
 - human rights, asylum applications 214–15, 219
 - The Hunt* (film), from
 - anthropological perspective 194–201
 - hunting see foxhunting
 - Hyde, Sir Robert 58–59, 62, 63
- I
- Ideas Bazaar, designing research projects 76
 - identity see professional identity
 - identity and belonging, differences between NHS work groups 149–50
 - Immigration Appellate Authority 218
 - India, Kumbh Mela pilgrimage 185–86
 - indigenous knowledge 18–19
 - Indonesia, Lamahalot fishermen 172
 - Industrial Relations Research Group 65–66
 - Industrial Society see Work Foundation
 - industrialists
 - Committee on Anthropology and Industry 65, 66, 67
 - espousing social anthropology 55–69
 - information and communication technologies, iSociety research programme 76
 - informed consent see consent
 - institutional context, of
 - development 112–15, 117, 120–21
 - international development see development

international relations, paucity of concepts 137

interviews depth interviews 96
 ethnography in NHS 149

Inuit peoples of North America 116

iSociety research programme, using ethnographic research 76

J

job satisfaction, domestic assistants in NHS 150, 151

Jungle Fever (television film) 184

K

Kanun of Lekë Dukagjini 222–23

Kayapó (film) 174

KEO films 183, 184

Kosovo
 Albanian migrants in court 209–25
 culture and ‘traditions of violence’ 210–14, 216, 221, 223
 insight into social processes 216
 war rape technique 212–13, 216, 220

Kumbh Mela, Hindu pilgrimage 185–86

L

laboratory research 98–99

Lamahalot fishermen 172

Leach, Edmund 60, 61

legal process, anthropologists as expert witnesses 203–4, 209–25

Lewellyn-Davies, Melissa 176

Lindisfarne, Nancy (Tapper) 29, 31, 32

Little, Kenneth 61, 64

local context, key factor in nurse turnover study 153

local knowledge see indigenous knowledge

loyalties, ethics in working contexts 12

M

MacCormack, Carol 35

Mair, Lucy 30

Malinowski, Bronislaw 30, 57, 117

market opportunities, contribution of anthropologists 140–41

market research case for anthropology engagement 94–95 issue of quality 93
 methodologies 92–93
see also commercial research

Market Research Society (MRS) 91

Mascarenhas-Keyes, Stella 34, 45, 46

Masters of Foxhounds Association, permission for research 192

Mead, Margaret 67

media
 anthropology on British TV 171–75
 profile of anthropology 16–17

methodological developments, for new contexts 13–14, 15

migration, avoidance of cultural constraints 213–14

Ministry of Defence (MOD) 12

MOD see Ministry of Defence (MOD)

moral dilemmas, expert witness in asylum cases 217

moral obligation, relationship with research participants 199

moral responsibilities, ethics in working contexts 11–13 moral values and beliefs, domestic assistants in NHS 150

Mosaic Pictures 180

Moser, Brian 171

multidisciplinary contexts benefits and implications 101–6, 107
 profile of anthropology 14–16

multivariate and cluster analysis 96 murder, anthropological insight into motives 216–17

N

- NAPA see National Association for the Practice of Anthropology
- National Association for the Practice of Anthropology (NAPA) 19
- ethical guidelines 12–13
- National Health Service (NHS), applications of anthropology 145–65
- National Network for Teaching and Learning Anthropology 46–47
- Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act, ‘White List’ applications 220–21
- Native Land* (television series) 175
- NEC see Network Enabled Capability
- Network Enabled Capability (NEC), applicability of anthropology 134–35
- networking 20
- absence of 28
- ASA’s practising anthropologists’ network 51
- GAPP activities 44
- newspaper coverage 221–22
- Ngarrindjeri women 16–17
- NHS see National Health Service
- North America, Inuit peoples 116
- nurses
- challenging professional boundaries 156–59
- turnover of workforce 151–55

O

- observational cinema, affinities with anthropology 177
- ODA see Overseas Development Agency
- organisational change, action research study 59
- organisational problems in the NHS, cultural censorship 160
- organisations
- ‘Anthropology of Organisations’ conference 45

see also professional organisations

- ostracism, Albanian culture 212, 213, 216
- Overseas Development Agency (ODA) 32, 46

P

- Palmer, Andrew 183, 184
- Papua New Guinea, ‘anthropologist as advocate’ 118–19
- participant observation
- access to foxhunting 192
- ethnography in NHS 149–50
- suspicion of Hunt members 192–93
- winning confidence and allaying suspicions 193
- see also* fieldworking
- Participatory Poverty Assessment (PPA) 115, 122
- participatory research
- methodologies see participant observation; research approaches
- Participatory Rural Appraisal (PRA) 115, 120
- ‘People, Trouble and the State’ (conference) 34
- PEP see Political and Economic Planning
- Performance and Innovation Unit (PIU), demand for social researchers 133
- permission See consent
- photography
- attitudes in Romania and UK 105–6
- ethnography in practice 81, 85
- PIU see Performance and Innovation Unit
- Plass, Webster 59
- policy
- anthropological approaches 37, 50–51
- ‘Anthropology and Policy’ (ASA conference sessions) 56

- essentially evidence-based 133, 140–41
- PEP group on human relations in industry 58
- ‘Power and Participatory Development’ conference 45
- priorities of social development 110–12, 122–25
- Political and Economic Planning
(PEP) 57, 67
- politics of the NHS, research in climate of uncertainty 157–59, 161–62
- postgraduate employment outside academy 29–33
- postgraduate training see
professional training
- poverty
measurement and assessment 114–15
reduction strategies 121, 122
- power relations
anthropologists in challenging role 102
interface of representations in court 217–23
- PPA see Participatory Poverty
Assessment
- PRA see Participatory Rural Appraisal
- press coverage, Albanian ‘culture of violence’ 221–22, 223
- privatisation, anticipated erosion of loyalty 151
- probes, ethnography in practice 81, 85
- professional associations
in a changing context 47–51
support for postgraduates 5, 6, 9, 19–20, 27–31
see also specific associations
- professional identity 3, 4, 9–11, 15–17, 57, 73, 102–6
- professional training
anthropological film-training 170–87
- in applied anthropology 20, 31–33
- GAPP’s initiatives for postgraduates 35–39
- Grillo Report 38–39
- opportunity for revaluation 88
- organisations set up for support 27–33
- postgraduate programmes in
United States 32
- specialist Masters courses 39
- undergraduate training 46, 48
- visual anthropology course 176, 187
- vocational practice courses 39
- profile
of anthropology 3, 4, 9–11, 14–17, 57, 73, 102–6
anthropology on British TV
171–75
- protection, concern of development agencies 113–14
- psychoanalytical methods, market
research methodologies 92–93
- public image see profile of
anthropology
- ‘public interest’ anthropology 142
- public sector, employment of anthropologists 31
- public service
applications of anthropology 130–42
evidence-based policy and planning 140–41
- Q
- qualitative research, market
research methodologies 92, 93
- Quality Assurance Agency (QAA)
48, 49
- quality audit, mechanism of control 159
- quantitative social trends analysis
95–97
- R
- Raglan, Lord 58–59

- RAI see Royal Anthropological Institute
- rape and sexual abuse, technique of Kosovo war 212–13, 216, 220
- Rapid Rural Appraisal (RRA) 120
- refugees
 from Albanian blood feuds 213
 see also asylum seekers
- relations, human/animal in
 foxhunting 193–94
- relationships at work, increasing job satisfaction 150
- ‘release forms’, documentary film-making 199–200
- representation of actions or opinions 196 concerns about negative portrayal 197 film creating emotional engagement 198 reporting on impact of Scottish hunting ban 203–4
- research accounts, preserving anonymity 196
- research approaches action research in NHS 156, 157, 160 anthropological investigations in NHS 147–48 anthropological skills 132 commercial and social 85–86
 cumulative 163–64
 English foxhunting 191–206
 participatory methodologies 115 working environment and management linkages 161
- Research Assessment Exercise 48
- research findings, use beyond author’s control 151
- ‘Research Industry’, a role for applied anthropology 92–95
- research methodologies,
 ethnography’s complimentary role 78–83, 90–107
- responsibility anthropological consultancy to hunting enquiry 202–3, 206
 anthropologist as ‘gatekeeper’ 196
 researching impact of Scottish hunting ban 203–4 to anthropology 205
- revenge killings 216
- Rew, Alan 35–36
- risk, faced by asylum seekers 210, 211, 215, 216, 218–19
- risk communications, anthropologist’s role in risk management 139–40
- Romania, field research contrasted with UK 105
- Rothschild Commission 28, 30, 37
- Rowntree, Peter 63
- Royal Anthropological Institute (RAI) 5, 32, 47 and the ‘Captains of Industry’ 55–69
 in a changing context 47–51
 ‘Committee on Anthropology in Industry’ 65, 66, 67
 ‘Friends of the RAI’ 59, 65
 joint working group with ASA 35, 36
- RRA see Rapid Rural Appraisal
- S
- SA4 (company) 33
- sampling, market research methodology 95–96
- SASCW see Social Anthropology and Social Community Work
- Scottish Parliament, ban on foxhunting 203–4
- Searle, Gavin 184
- Selfridges, ethnographic study 67, 68
- sexual abuse 213, 216, 220
- SfAA see Society for Applied Anthropology
- Sharia religious law 222
- Sheahan, Tom 182
- Sieff, Israel 55, 57–69
- silence, communal, cultural censorship 146–47, 159, 160

- Sillitoe, Paul 3, 4
 situational analysis, policy guidance 141 skills
 and abilities of anthropologists 35 essential to management 135–36
 for multi-disciplinary contexts 15
 Smith, Marion 67
 social anthropology and ‘Captains of Industry’ 55–69 sceptical of development 116
 see also anthropology; applied anthropology; ethnography; visual anthropology Social Anthropology and Social Community Work (SASCW) 35, 40
 merging into AinA 40
 social development
 adaptation of social research methods 111
 informed by anthropological knowledge 123–26
 knowledge as management tool 110, 114 meeting policy priorities 110–12
 see also development social processes, of foxhunting 193–94 social protection, concern of development agencies 113–14 social researchers, in development sector 120
 Social Science Research Council (SSRC)
 funding issues affecting anthropology 31, 32, 33, 57
 Rothschild Commission 28, 30, 37
 social transformation, transition towards directed change 113 societies see professional associations Society for Applied Anthropology (SfAA) 19
 decennial conference 33
 ethical guidelines 12–13
 ‘Society and Information Technology’ (conference) 39–40 sociocultural models 96
 sociotechnical realities, of the networked world 135
 Southern Africa, hunter gatherer communities 116
 ‘speaking of silence’ 147, 148, 159–60
 SSRC see Social Science Research Council
 Stevenson, Noel 61, 64
 Stirling, Paul 29, 30, 33, 34, 37
Storyville (TV documentary) 182 systems of systems, challenging their resilience 135
- T Tapper, Nancy see Lindisfarne, Nancy team-based anthropology 80–81 television, profile of anthropology 16–17 television anthropology 170–87
 television industry
 anthropological career trajectories 181–87 investment in anthropological programming 172 opportunities for anthropologists 178 out-sourcing of programming 178 television production equipment, impact of new technology 178–81
 ‘The Enemy Within’ (film) 180 time/value balance 103
 tourism, ‘Anthropology of Tourism’ conference 45 ‘Training and Employment of Social Anthropologists’ (conference) 31–33 training see professional training trust, relationship with research participants 199, 205

Turner, Terry 174

U

UGC see University Grants Council
Under the Sun, television series 173
UNDP see United Nations
Development Programme
UNHCR see United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees
United Kingdom See Britain
United Kingdom (television series)
180
United Nations Development Programme
(UNDP) 121
Geneva Convention on Refugees
219, 222–23
United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) 221
United States
applied anthropology training programmes 32
experience of applied
anthropology 4, 19–20
growth of applied anthropology
118
United States Society for Applied
Anthropology 63
University Grants Council (UGC), cuts to university funding 28, 30, 33
University of Manchester, Granada
Centre for Visual Anthropology 175 usability studies 98–99

V

value/time balance 103 video diaries, ethnography in practice 165
violence, Albanian ‘traditions of violence’ 210–14, 216, 221, 223
visual anthropology, anthropology in television 170–87

W

war and conflict resolution, role for
anthropology 138
‘White List’, U.K. policy on asylum applications 220–21
witness see expert witness
Woods, David 174
Work Foundation 76
workforce stability, nurses in NHS 154 workshops, ethnographic approach
77, 78, 85
World Bank 112, 117
reform of aid programme
120–21

Y

Young Turks’ 9, 30, 37
Yugoslavia, war rape technique
212–13, 216, 220