NEW YORK · OXFORD

Please join all of us at Berghahn in celebrating twenty-five years of independent publishing!

Dear Colleague,

Over the last few years, our journals program has rapidly expanded in scope and reputation and we are pleased to publish important journals in the subject areas of anthropology and sociology, European politics, cultural studies, and history. Each journal is fully peer-reviewed with editorial boards comprised of the leading scholars in their fields. We are above all delighted to have our journals program recognized by the AAP/PSP through the award for Best New Journal in the Humanities & Social Sciences two years in a row! For 2008 the award went to Projections and for 2009 to Girlhood Studies.

If you have any questions or suggestions about our journals publishing program and initiatives please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Our thanks for your continued support.

Kind regards,

Wivian K. Berghahn

MIGRATION AND SOCIETY

Advances in Research

EDITORS: Mette Louise Berg, Elena Fiddian-Qasmieh, and Johanna L. Waters, all of University College London

Migration and Society is an interdisciplinary peer-reviewed journal advancing debate about emergent trends in all types of migration. It invites work that situates migration in a wider historical and societal context, including attention to experiences and representations of migration, critical theoretical perspectives on migration, and the social, cultural, and legal embeddedness of migration. The journal addresses both dynamics and drivers of migration; processes of settlement and integration; and transnational practices and diaspora formation.

DEMOCRATIC THEORY An Interdisciplinary Journal

EDITORS: Mark Chou, Australian Catholic University and Jean-Paul Gagnon, University of Canberra

Democratic Theory encourages philosophical and interdisciplinary contributions that critically explore democratic theory—in all its forms. It advances non-Western as well as Western ideas and is actively based on the premise that there are many forms of democracies and many types of democrats.

For too long, the discourse of democracy has been colonized and predetermined by the West. Now more than ever there is a need to globalize—and by extension democratize—how we think about democracy. Democratic Theory provides the means for these essential debates to germinate and develop.

REGIONS AND COHESION

Regiones y Cohesión/ Régions et Cohésion

EDITORS: Harlan Koff, Université du Luxembourg and Carmen Maganda, INECOL

The journal of the Consortium for Comparative Research on Regional Integration and Social Cohesion (RISC), a cross-regional, interdisciplinary, and multi-lingual network of socially conscious and prestigious research institutes in Europe, North America, South America, Africa, and Asia.

Regions and Cohesion is a needed platform for academics and practitioners alike to disseminate both empirical research and normative analysis of topics related to human and environmental security, social cohesion, and governance. It covers themes, such as the management of strategic resources, environment and society, social risk and marginalization, disasters and policy responses, violence, war and urban security, the quality of democracy, development, public health, immigration, human rights, organized crime, and cross-border human security.

Interdisciplinary in nature and multi-lingual in character (English, French, Spanish), the journal promotes the comparative examination of the human and environmental impacts of various aspects of regional integration across geographic areas, time periods, and policy arenas.
