Ritual What It Is, How It Works, and Why

Robbie Davis-Floyd, Rice University and
Charles D. Laughlin,
Carleton College

“One could say that this is a “ritual omnibus”—a text that takes us into a journey into the different scales and dimensions of ritual, and ultimately encourages its readers to rethink their understandings both of ritual and of society.”

· Ruy Blanes, University of Gothenburg

“This book is the go-to resource for anyone seeking a holistic, modern understanding of the human phenomenon of ritual. Robbie Davis-Floyd and Charles Laughlin not only assemble information and insights from a panoply of anthropologically known societies, but also enrich their discussion of ritual’s power from their own personal life experiences. The results are exciting and potentially lifechanging.”

· Megan Biesele, President, Kalahari People’s Fund

Designed for both academic and lay audiences, this book identifies the characteristics of ritual and, via multiple examples, details how ritual works on the human body and brain to produce its often profound effects. These include enhancing courage, effecting healing, and generating group cohesion by enacting cultural—or individual—beliefs and values. It also shows what happens when ritual fails.

Repair, Brokenness, Breakthrough Ethnographic Responses

Edited by Francisco Martínez, University of Leicester and Patrick Lavolette

“Anthropologists, sociologists, human geographers and STS scholars who research the affective expressions of brokenness and repair will find this book particularly helpful. This book offers a holistic take on the dialectics of breaking and fixing that is not only intellectually stimulating but also politically timely.” · Social Anthropology

The Rite of Urban Passage The Spatial Ritualization of Iranian Urban Transformation

Reza Masoudi, University of London

Focusing on the spatial dynamics of Muharram processions in the Iranian city, this book offers an alternative approach to understanding the process of urban transformation, and puts forward a spatial genealogy of Muharram rituals that provides a platform for developing a fresh spatial approach to ritual studies.

Structures of Protection? Rethinking Refugee Shelter

Edited by Tom Scott-Smith, University of Oxford and Mark E. Breeze, University of Cambridge

"While there has been an exponential growth in the literature on refugees and forced migration over the past decade, the issue of shelter has received very little attention. This volume fills that important gap in an admirable manner." • Jeff Crisp, University of Oxford

Rethinking and Unthinking Development Perspectives on Inequality and Poverty in South Africa and Zimbabwe

Edited by Busani Mpfu, University of South Africa and Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, University of South Africa

Through theoretical contributions and case studies focusing on South Africa and Zimbabwe, this volume attempts to rethink (and unthink) development discourses and practices in southern Africa.

An Anthropological Toolkit Sixty Useful Concepts

David Zeitlyn,
University of Oxford

"[The book] is phrased for anthropologists in the first instance, but is applicable as well to historians, sociologists, and anyone else trying to deliver a close and insightful account of social life."

• Michael Carrithers, Durham University

"David Zeitlyn has written a wryly engaging, short book on, essentially, why we should not become theoretical partisans—that, indeed, being a serious theorist means accepting precisely that principle."

• Michael Herzfeld, Harvard University

Presenting 60 theoretical ideas, David Zeitlyn argues 'How to write about anthropological theory without making a specific theoretical argument.'

To answer, he gives a series of mini essays about an eclectic collection of theoretical concepts that over many years he has found helpful. The book celebrates the muddled inconsistencies in the ways that humans live their messy lives. However, for all the mess, there are patterns discernable: the actors can understand what is going on, they see an event unfolding in ways that are familiar, as belonging to a certain type and therefore, Zeitlyn suggests, so can researchers.

Enlightening Encounters The Journeys of an Anthropologist

Stephen Gudeman,
University of Minnesota

"I believe Steve Gudeman may well be the internationally most renowned economic anthropologist of the late 20th and early 21st centuries, and I strongly recommend his memoir."

• Ulf Hannerz, Stockholm University

One of the world's top anthropologists recounts his formative experiences doing fieldwork in this accessible memoir ideal for anyone interested in anthropology.

Drawing on his research in five Latin American countries, Steve Gudeman describes his anthropological fieldwork, bringing to life the excitement of gaining an understanding of the practices and ideas of others as well as the frustrations. He weaves into the text some of his findings as well as reflections on his own background that led to better fieldwork but also led him astray.

This readable account, shorn of technical words, complicated concepts, and abstract ideas shows the reader what it is to be an anthropologist enquiring and responding to the unexpected.

All new Berghahn titles are available simultaneously in print and online editions. Our partnerships offer a range of choices for individuals and libraries alike:

Individual eBooks

Download Berghahn eBooks to your smartphone, tablet, e-reader, or computer, directly from berghahnbooks.com or from select retailers, including Amazon, Apple, Barnes & Noble eBooks.com, Google Play, Kobo, Libri, and Perlego.

Institutional eBooks

Our eBooks are available across libraries worldwide through partnerships that include: Baobab eBooks (Africa), CNPIEC (China), EBSCO, Gardners, JSTOR, Overdrive, and ProQuest Ebook Central (formerly ebrary and EBL). Libraries have a variety of purchase options—perpetual access, short-term loan or subscription—to a wide range of Berghahn eBooks across all our subjects. If an older title is not available from your library supplier, please ask them to request it from us.

Info for Instructors

We offer free and extended digital exam copies. For deciding on books for your current or upcoming semester's class, we provide free digital inspection copies and have also extended the standard review period to 90 days.

Electronic Files for Print-Disabled Students

For accessible file requests you can obtain files at Bookshare.org (US), [RNIB Bookshare](http://RNIB Bookshare) (UK) or email: productionus@berghahnbooks.com
