NEW YORK · OXFORD

Please join all of us at Berghahn in celebrating twenty-five years of independent publishing!

Dear Colleague,

Over the last few years, our journals program has rapidly expanded in scope and reputation and we are pleased to publish important journals in the subject areas of anthropology and sociology, European politics, cultural studies, and history. Each journal is fully peer-reviewed with editorial boards comprised of the leading scholars in their fields. We are above all delighted to have our journals program recognized by the AAP/PSP through the award for Best New Journal in the Humanities & Social Sciences two years in a row! For 2008 the award went to Projections and for 2009 to Girlhood Studies.

If you have any questions or suggestions about our journals publishing program and initiatives please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Our thanks for your continued support.

Kind regards,

Vivian K. Berghahn

ASPASIA

The International Yearbook of Central, Eastern, and Southeastern European Women's and Gender History

MANAGING EDITORS: Raili Marling, University of Tartu, Estonia, Svetla Baloutzova, St. Kliment Ohridski University of Sofia EDITOR AND BOOK REVIEW EDITOR: Krassimira Daskalova, St. Kliment Ohridski University of Sofia

Aspasia is an international peer-reviewed annual of women's and gender history of Central, Eastern, and Southeastern Europe (CESEE). It aims to transform European women's and gender history by expanding comparative research on women and gender to all parts of Europe, creating a European history of women and gender that encompasses more than the traditional Western European perspective. Aspasia particularly emphasizes research that examines the ways in which gender intersects with other categories of social organization and advances work that explores transnational aspects of women's and gender histories within, to, and from CESEE. The journal also provides an important outlet for the publication of articles by scholars working in CESEE itself. Its contributions cover a rich variety of topics and historical eras, as well as a wide range of methodologies and approaches to the history of women and gender.

JOURNAL OF EDUCATIONAL MEDIA, MEMORY, AND SOCIETY

EDITOR: Eckhardt Fuchs, Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research (GEI)

MANAGING EDITOR: Peter Carrier, GEI

Published on behalf of the Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research

JEMMS explores perceptions of society as constituted and conveyed in processes of learning and educational media. The focus is on various types of texts (such as textbooks, museums, memorials, films) and their institutional, political, social, economic, and cultural contexts. The construction of collective memory and conceptions of space, the production of meaning, image formation, forms of representation, and perceptions of the "self" and the "other," as well as processes of identity construction (ethnic, national, regional, religious, institutional, gender) are of particular interest. Special importance is given to the significance of educational media for social cohesion and conflict.
