Please join all of us at Berghahn in celebrating twenty-five years of independent publishing!

Dear Colleague,

Over the last few years, our journals program has rapidly expanded in scope and reputation and we are pleased to publish important journals in the subject areas of anthropology and sociology, European politics, cultural studies, and history. Each journal is fully peer-reviewed with editorial boards comprised of the leading scholars in their fields. We are above all delighted to have our journals program recognized by the AAP/PSP through the award for Best New Journal in the Humanities & Social Sciences two years in a row! For 2008 the award went to Projections and for 2009 to Girlhood Studies.

If you have any questions or suggestions about our journals publishing program and initiatives please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

DEMOCRATIC THEORY
An Interdisciplinary Journal

EDITORS: Mark Chou, Australian Catholic University and Jean-Paul Gagnon, University of Canberra

Democratic Theory encourages philosophical and interdisciplinary contributions that critically explore democratic theory—in all its forms. It advances non-Western as well as Western ideas and is actively based on the premise that there are many forms of democracies and many types of democrats.

For too long, the discourse of democracy has been colonized and predetermined by the West. Now more than ever there is a need to globalize—and by extension democratize—how we think about democracy. Democratic Theory provides the means for these essential debates to germinate and develop.
