

"This is a series which, in a very short period of time, has had a huge impact on the field." · Monatshefte

Film Europa

German Cinema in an International Context

General Editors:

Hans-Michael Bock, CineGraph Hamburg

Tim Bergfelder, University of Southampton

Barbara Mennel, University of Florida

German cinema is normally seen as a distinct form, but this series emphasizes connections, influences, and exchanges of German cinema across national borders, as well as its links with other media and art forms. Individual titles present traditional historical research (archival work, industry studies) as well as new critical approaches in film and media studies (theories of the transnational), with a special emphasis on the continuities associated with popular traditions and local perspectives.
