

Contents

	List of Illustrations	vii
	Preface	viii
	Acknowledgements	x
Introduction	Reasserting the Centrality of Women in Diasporas Haci Akman	1
PART I. BARGAINING AND NEGOTIATING IDENTITIES
Chapter 1	Art as Political Expression in Diaspora Haci Akman	15
Chapter 2	Islamic Identity as Third Space: Muslim Women Activists Negotiating Subjectivity in Sweden Pia Karlsson Minganti	31
Chapter 3	Political Muslim Women in the News Media Rikke Andreassen	61
Chapter 4	Finding Their Own Way between Revolutionary Adult Feminism and Well-behaved Veiled Girlhood: Female Migrants in Denmark Malene Fenger-Grøndahl	91
Chapter 5	Gendered Experiences of Homeland, Identity and Belonging among the Kurdish Diaspora Minoo Alinia	109
PART II. HOME POLITICS, HOST POLICIES AND RESISTANCE
Chapter 6	Learning Processes and Political Literacy among Women in the Norwegian Kurdish Diaspora Kariane Westrheim	127
Chapter 7	Territorial Stigmatization, Inequality of Schooling and Identity Formation among Young Immigrants Bolette Moldenhawer	150

Chapter 8	The Absence of Strategy and the Absence of Bildung : When Integration Policy Cannot Succeed Tina Kallehave	175
	Notes on Contributors	190
	Index	193