

Contents

List of Abbreviations		vii
Introduction	The Nazi Seizure of Power in Historical and Historiographical Perspective Hermann Beck and Larry Eugene Jones	1
Chapter 1	Taming the Nazi Beast: Kurt von Schleicher and the End of the Weimar Republic Larry Eugene Jones	23
Chapter 2	Ausnahmezustand, Staatsnotstandsplan, and Ermächtigungsgesetz: Reappraising Carl Schmitt's Political Constitutionalism and the Demise of Weimar Joseph W. Bendersky	52
Chapter 3	Ludwig Kaas and the End of the German Center Party Martin Menke	79
Chapter 4	The Nazi Seizure of Power in Bavaria and the Demise of the Bavarian People's Party Winfried Becker	111
Chapter 5	German Big Business and the National Revolution, 1933–34 Peter Hayes	141
Chapter 6	Violence against “ Ostjuden ” in the Spring of 1933 and the Reaction of German Authorities Hermann Beck	163
Chapter 7	The SA in the Gleichschaltung : The Context of Pressure and Violence Bruce B. Campbell	194

Chapter 8	Nationalist Socialism against National Socialism? Perceptions of Nazism and Anti-Nazi Strategies in the Circle of the Neue Blätter für den Sozialismus , 1930–34 Stefan Vogt	222
Chapter 9	Nationalism, Socialism, and Organized Labor’s Response to the Dissolution of the Weimar Republic William L. Patch Jr.	248
Chapter 10	From Collegiality to the Führerprinzip : The 1933 Introduction of the Episcopacy in the Hamburg Landeskirche Rainer Hering	281
Chapter 11	Friedrich von Bodelschwingh and the Protestant Appeasement of the Nazi Regime, 1933–34 Edward Snyder	310
Chapter 12	In Search of Allies: Catholic Conservatives, the Alliance of Catholic Germans, and the Nazi Regime, 1933–34 Larry Eugene Jones and Kevin P. Spicer	339
Chapter 13	German Youth between Euphoria and Resistance: Political Coercion and the Coordination of German Youth André Postert	366
Chapter 14	“German Youth, Your Leader!” How National Socialism Entered Elementary Schools in 1933 Katharine Kennedy	394
Conclusion	Reaffirming the Value of Political History Hermann Beck and Larry Eugene Jones	418
Index		435