

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Introduction. Approaching Historical Reenactments Mario Carretero, Brady Wagoner, and Everardo Perez-Manjarrez	1
Part I. New Theoretical and Methodological Approaches
Chapter 1. On Motives for Reenactment: The Kindertransport Bill Niven	19
Chapter 2. Conceptualizing the Period Rush: Ludic Dimensions of Immersive History in Historical Reenactment Robbert-Jan Adriaansen	33
Part II. Reenactments as Tools of Cultural and National Identities
Chapter 3. Historical Reenactments in Spain: A Critical Approach to Public Perceptions of the Iron Age and Roman Past David González-Álvarez, Pablo Alonso-González, and Jesús Rodríguez-Hernández	49
Chapter 4. Reenacting the Reconquista Myth? Some Reflections on Moros y Cristianos Festivals in Spain Ignacio Brescó and Floor van Alphen	66

Part III. Politics of Reenactment: Troubled Pasts, Colonialism, and Democratic Prospects

- Chapter 5. Statue Wars and Reenactments: Reinterpreting
the Colonial Past in Australia 85
Stephen Gapps
- Chapter 6. From Yogyakarta to Independence: Negotiating Narratives in the Historical Reenactment of Recolonization in Indonesia 98
Lise Zurné
- Chapter 7. Memory Sites and Reenacting State Terrorism:
The Museum at Argentina’s Naval Mechanics School 118
Marisa González de Oleaga

Part IV. Reenactments as Educational Devices in Formal and Informal Contexts

- Chapter 8. Reenacting the Past in the School Yard: The Role of Reenactment in Civic and History Education 131
Mario Carretero, Everardo Perez-Manjarrez, and Maria Rodriguez-Moneo
- Chapter 9. Inside Historical Reenactment 149
Tyson Retz
- Epilogue. What Is the Task of Reenactment? 163
Vanessa Agnew
- Index 170