

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Preface	x
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction. From Gentrification to Gentrifications	1
PART I. STRUCTURES
Chapter 1. From Industry to Real Estate: Creating the Gentrification Supply	43
Chapter 2. The Existing Built Environment: How Urban Morphologies Inform Gentrification ‘Potentials’	46
Chapter 3. On the Diversity of Gentrifiers: Structural Effects and Contextual Effects	62
Chapter 4. Are Pro-Gentrification Policies Real? An Evidence-Based Inquiry	77
PART II. POLICIES
Chapter 5. Gentrification: A Matter of Images and Representations	97
Chapter 6. Moving Upmarket: A Neoliberal Strategy of Urban (Re)Development	102
	120
	142

PART III. INHABITANTS	161
Chapter 7. Gentrification, Pauperization, Immigration: One Process May Hide Another	166
Chapter 8. Popular Continuities in Gentrifying Neighbourhoods: The Presences and Practices of Nonresidents	181
Chapter 9. Residing in a Gentrifying Neighbourhood: The Importance of Trajectories and Mobilities	198
Chapter 10. Negotiating Diversity in Daily Life: Controlled Neighbourly Relations and School Choices	213
Conclusion	226
Index	237