

Contents

Acknowledgments	x
List of Illustrations	xi
List of Abbreviations	xii
Introduction. Prioritizing Indigenous Perspectives and Voices in Collaborative Governance Michèle Companion and Jason D. Rivera	1
Part I Overarching Considerations for Indigenous Collaborative Governance and Social Equity	21
1. Public Administration and Intergovernmental Collaboration with and for Indigenous Communities: Pushing a More Equitable Governance Paradigm Jason D. Rivera	25
2. Developing Research and Project-Based Partnerships with Indigenous Communities Michèle Companion and Jason D. Rivera	55
3. Indigenous Digital Governance: Principles and Practices for Self-Determination and Equity Diane E. Smith	77
Part II National-Level Topical Issues: Expanding Sovereignty and Governmental Collaboration	107
4. Engaging Sacred Wisdom in Public Administration: Everyday Practices of Tribal Governance in Indonesia Budi Waluyo, Muhammad Syahrul Fuady, and Agus Sunarya Sulaeman	111

5. Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls: Opportunities Based on Collaborative Governance Michèle Companion	132
6. The Struggles around the Officialization of Mapuche Language and the Recognition of Indigenous Languages in Chile Salvador Millaleo	155
7. Enhancing Collaboration for Effective Tribal Hazard Mitigation: A Comparative Case Study of Indigenous Nations in the Northwest United States Oluponmile Olonilua and John Aliu	183
8. Indigenous Student Internships: Advancing Social Equity in Higher Education in the United States Susan E. Baer, Angela M. Mai, Victor Ferreros, and Daniel Hajdo	204
Part III State, Provisional, and Local Case Studies	223
9. Fueled by Conflict: Intergovernmental Relations on the Oneida Reservation Rebecca M. Webster	227
10. From Sunrise to Moonfall: Allyship Construction and the Kaingáng People of Sub-Amazonian Brazil Darren R. Reid, Leonel Piovezana, Claudia Battestin, and Kaingáng Collaborators	248
11. Indigenous Perspectives and Collaborative Governance: Decolonizing Thunder Bay Public Library, Canada John Pateman	274
12. Achieving Tribal, Municipal, and County Cooperation in the United States Mitchell Berg	298

13. Climate-Adaptive Community Capacity Building in Historically Marginalized Communities in Eastern Connecticut, United States: Lessons Learned from Integrating Co-creative Approaches La'Tasha Maddox and Alicia Tyson	329
Conclusion. Moving beyond What Has Been to What Could Be Jason D. Rivera and Michèle Companion	365
Index	377