

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Foreword. Ending Colonial Complicities: Europe and the Intersectional Struggles for Racial Justice Annalisa Frisina	ix
Introduction. Decolonizing Europe: Ethnographies of National and Transnational Projects Patrícia Ferraz de Matos and Livio Sansone	1
Chapter 1. Decolonizing Europe and the Problem of Neonationalism Jordan Kiper and Chadra Pittman	15
Chapter 2. The Measure of Time: Repurposing the Archives, Repatriating Human Remains Pegi Vail	38
Chapter 3. People of African Descent and Antiracist Mobilization in Post- Imperial Portugal Bruno Sena Martins	65

Chapter 4.

- Decolonizing Education (in Italy and Portugal) through Arts:
Pass the Mic! 89
Francesca De Luca and Anna Serlenga

Chapter 5.

- On (De)Colonial Education, Anthropological Knowledge and
'Heritage Digestion': Insights on the History of Anthropology in Portugal 117
Carmeliza Rosário and Ema Pires

Chapter 6.

- The Kurdish Struggle as an Anticolonial Dynamo: From Nationalist Struggle to Militant Internationalism 144
José Vicente Mertz

Chapter 7.

- Rethinking Conflicts: The Cold War Museum in Žemaitija
National Park 169
Vida Savoniakaitė

Chapter 8.

- Debunking the Colonial Narrative in Belgium: Public Space
Decolonization in Brussels and Cultural Objects Restitution to Central African Countries 192
Axel Mudahemuka Gossiaux

Epilogue.

- The Future of the Decolonial: Contradictory Tendencies in Europe 216
Patrícia Ferraz de Matos and Livio Sansone

- Index* 220