

Contents

Part I. Beginnings, Concepts, and Questions

- Introduction 3
Michael G. Flaherty, Anne Line Dalsgård, and Lotte Meinert
- Chapter 1. The Lathe of Time: Some Principles of Temporal Agency 13
Michael G. Flaherty

Part II. Temporal Afflictions

- Chapter 2. Repetition Work: Healing Spirits and Trauma in the Churches of Northern Uganda 31
Lars Williams and Lotte Meinert
- Chapter 3. ADHD and Temporal Experiences: Struggling for Synchronization 50
Mikka Nielsen

Part III. The Politics of Time

- Chapter 4. Hacking Time and Looping Temporalities in the Identification of the Adult “Living Disappeared” in Argentina 67
Noa Vaisman
- Chapter 5. Temporal Front and Back Stages: Time Work as Resistance 83
Lisa-Jo K. van den Scott

Part IV. Spirituality and Atheism as Temporal Agency

Chapter 6. Se Deus Quiser: Catholicism as Time Work among the Xukuru of Pernambuco 105
Clarissa Martins Lima

Chapter 7. “It Is Just Doing the Motion”: Atheist Time Work in Contemporary Kyrgyzstan 121
Maria Louw

Part V. Reinventing the Past, Present, and Future

Chapter 8. Inventing New Time: Time Work in the Grief Practices of Bereaved Parents 139
Dorthe Refslund Christensen and Kjetil Sandvik

Chapter 9. Now Is Not: Future Anteriority and a Georgian in Russia 158
Martin Demant Frederiksen

Part VI. Time and Deprivation

Chapter 10. The Work of Waiting: Boredom, Teatime, and Future-Making in Niger 175
Adeline Masquelier

Chapter 11. Balancing Blood Sugar: Fasting, Feeling, and Time Work during the Egyptian Ramadan 193
Mille Kjærgaard Thorsen and Anne Line Dalsgård

Afterword. A “Temporal Novel” Inspired by the Concept of Time Work 209
Carmen Leccardi

Index 221