

Contents

Introduction	1
Martin H. Geyer
1. Exploring the Invention of Risk Debates: Natural Disasters, Insurance, and Risk Management in the Late Twentieth Century	30
Nicolai Hannig
2. Insuring Catastrophes: Capital Market-Based Forms of Insurance since the 1980s	49
Martin Lengwiler
3. Places of Risk on the Site of Socialist Modernity: Fighting Industrial Accidents until the GDR Was No More	67
Thomas Lindenberger
4. From “Black Sheriffs” to “Security Partners”? The Emergence of Private Policing in Public Spaces in Germany since the 1970s	89
Marcus Böick
5. Risky Housing: Squatting in London and Hamburg in the 1970s and Early 1980s	108
Christine G. Krüger
6. Imprisoned Protest: The Body at Risk and Hunger Strikes in the United States in Transnational Perspective, 1968–85	128
Maximilian Buschmann
7. “An Inseparable Pair”: Freedom and Security in the Schengen Space	150
Isaac Stanley-Becker

8. It's the Brain, Stupid: Neuroscience, Risk, and Crime Peter Becker	171
Conclusion. From Risks to Emergencies? Martin H. Geyer	193
Index	201