

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Introduction. On Mediation: Historical, Legal, Anthropological and International Perspectives on Alternative Modes of Conflict Regulation Karl Härter, Carolin Hillemanns and Günther Schlee	1
Part I. Mediation, Arbitration and the Criminal Justice System: Historical and Current Developments
Chapter 1. Infrajudicial Modes of Conflict Regulation through Negotiation, Mediation and Arbitration in Early Modern European Criminal Justice Karl Härter	15
Chapter 2. Adjudication or Negotiation: Mediation as Non-modern Element in Conflict Resolution in the Nordic Countries Pia Letto-Vanamo	42
Chapter 3. Mediation, Extrajudicial Conflict Regulation and the Privatization of the Criminal Justice System Hubert Rottleuthner	54

Part II. Mediation: Anthropological Perspectives and Case Studies

Chapter 4. What Is Mediation? Definitions and Anthropological Discomforts Andrea Nicolas	69
Chapter 5. Mediation in Circumstances of the Existential: Dispute and Justice in Rwanda Stefanie Bognitz	95
Chapter 6. Mediation and Truth Günther Schlee	116
Chapter 7. Crossing the Boundaries of Mediation Keebet von Benda-Beckmann	132

Part III. Mediation and Arbitration in International Arenas

Chapter 8. Interstate Mediation and Arbitration: Concepts, Cases and Actors of Third Party Dispute Resolution (Seventeenth to Nineteenth Century) Jakob Zollmann	153
Chapter 9. International Mediation and the Problem of Insincere Bargaining Nathan Danneman and Kyle Beardsley	184
Chapter 10. The International Court of Justice and Mediation Pierre d'Argent	208
Conclusion Karl Härter, Carolin Hillemanns and Günther Schlee	219
Index	222