

CONTENTS

---

---

List of Illustrations	vii
Foreword
Gillian Tett	viii
Introduction
What Competition Does: An Anthropological Theory
Teodor Zidaru and Leo Hopkinson	1
Chapter 1
Competing for the Future: Play, Drama, and Rank in Amazonia	26
Natalia Buitron
Chapter 2
The Ethics of Yoga and the Spirit of Godmen: Neoliberalism, Competition, and Capitalism in India	48
Joseph S. Alter
Chapter 3
E-sports vs. Exams: Competition Ideologies among Student Gamers in Neo-socialist China	69
Yichen Rao
Chapter 4
“Is There Going to Be Another Competition Today?” Contesting Development through Competition	91
A. McCarthy
Chapter 5
Afterlives and Alter-lives: How Competitions Produce (Neoliberal?) Subjects in Indonesia	112
Nicholas J. Long

Chapter 6

Co-existing through Opposition: Competitive Theologies and Cohesion
in a Spanish Village 134

Josep Almudéver Chanzà

Conclusion

Competition in Anthropology and Anthropology in Competition 141

Leo Hopkinson and Teodor Zidaru

Index 167