

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Maps	ix
Introduction Jonathan Huener and Andrea Löw	1
1. “So That the Future Chronicler Can Make Use Not Only of Official Documents”: How Jews in the Ghettos Documented and Researched the Holocaust in Occupied Poland Andrea Löw	18
2. Networks of Dependence and Love: Jewish–Gentile Relationships in Nazi-Occupied Poland Natalia Aleksium	41
3. Stories of Power: Sexual Contacts between Occupiers and Locals in German-Occupied Poland Maren Röger	65
4. Kirchenpolitik as Volkstumspolitik : The Catholic Church in Nazi-Occupied Poland Jonathan Huener	83
5. Ordinary Organization, Extraordinary State Violence: The Polish “Blue” Police and the Holocaust in Eastern Kraków District Tomasz Frydel	102
6. Moral Victories? Warsaw’s Two Uprisings in World War II Winson Chu	127

Contents

7. Polish Debates on the Holocaust from the 1940s to the Present Dariusz Stola	153
Conclusion: Contemporary Research on the Holocaust and German Occupation of Poland – Between New Empiricism and Geschichtspolitik Ingo Loose	182
Index	201