

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction Damien Huffer	1
Chapter 1. How to Sell an Ancient Manuscript on YouTube: Investigating a Hidden Corner of the Internet Market in Antiquities Evie Handby	13
Chapter 2. Amateur Archaeology or Looting? Exploring Heritage Gray Zones on Reddit Calum Farrar	33
Chapter 3. Who Are the Trafficked Dead? An Examination into Personhood and Postmortem Narratives in Skull Sales on eBay Christine L. Halling and Ryan M. Seidemann	61
Chapter 4. Online Social Organization of Cultural Goods Trafficking: New Evidence from Old Forums across Europe Samuel Andrew Hardy	79
Chapter 5. Cybercrimes and Chinese Cultural Relics: Status Quo, Legal Issues, Future Criminal Legislation, and Regulation Hao Liu	112
Chapter 6. The Auction of Human Remains: Challenges, Case Studies, and Reflections Amy E. Rattenbury and Paige Tynan	149
Chapter 7. Culture of Oddities: The Appeal of the Human Remains Market on Facebook Evelyn Breda	181

Conclusion	202
Shawn Graham
Appendix. Biological and Demographic Profiles of “Known” eBay Skulls	209
Index	221