

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction. Ambiguities and Navigations Susie Kilshaw	1
Chapter 1. Does Twenty-First-Century Technology Change the Experience of Early Pregnancy and Miscarriage? Pedro Melo and Ingrid Granne	33
Chapter 2. The Meanings of Miscarriage in Twentieth-Century Britain Rosemary Elliot	59
Chapter 3. Alleviating the Ambiguities around Miscarriage: Discursive Tactics in Cameroon and Romania Erica van der Sijpt	87
Chapter 4. Some Babies Cannot Be Stopped from Falling: Miscarriage in Pakistani Punjab Kaveri Qureshi	113
Chapter 5. God's Design, Thwarted Plans: Women's Experience of Miscarriage in Qatar and England Susie Kilshaw	136
Chapter 6. 'It Felt Like the Longest Time of My Life': Using Foetal Dopplers at Home to Manage Anxiety about Miscarriage Aimee Middlemiss	160
Chapter 7. Miscarriage and Its Resulting Losses during Commercial Surrogacy in India Sayani Mitra	184

Chapter 8. Unwitnessed Ceremonies: Funeral Services for Pre-24-Week Pregnancy Losses in England Karolina Kuberska	206
Conclusions Susie Kilshaw	233
Index	237