CONTENTS

List of Figures vii

Introduction. Reflections on the “New Dementia” 1

Annette Leibing and Silke Schicktanz

PART I. The Discursive and Social Practices of Dementia Prevention

1. A Window to Act? Revisiting the Conceptual Foundations of Alzheimer’s Disease in Dementia Prevention 19

Lara Keuck

2. The Vascularization of Alzheimer’s Disease: Prevention in “Glocal” Geriatric Care 40

Annette Leibing

3. If Dementia Prevention Is the Answer, What Was the Question? Observations from the German Alzheimer’s Disease Debate 65

Silke Schicktanz

4. Dementia Prevention: Another Expansion of the Preventive Horizon 92

Matthias Leanza

5. Mind’s Frailty: Elements of a “Geriatric Logic” in the Clinical Discourse about Dementia Prevention 110

Alessandro Blasimme

PART II. From the Prediction and Early Detection to the Prevention of Dementia

6. Revisiting MCI: On Classificatory Drift 131

Tiago Moreira
7. The Preventive Uncertainty of Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI): The Experts, the Market, and the Subjects of Diagnosis
   Stephen Katz, Kevin R. Peters, and Peri J. Ballantyne

   PART III. Conceptual Premises and Normative Claims of Prevention

8. Staging Prevention, Arresting Progress: Chronic Disease Prevention and the Lifestyle Frame
   Kirsten Bell

   Mark Schweda and Larissa Pfaller

10. Governing through Prevention: Lifestyle and the Health Field Concept
    Thomas Foth

Afterword. Looking Forward
   Peter J. Whitehouse and Daniel R. George

Index