

Contents

List of Figures	x
Foreword Margaret Conkey	xiv
Introduction Lynne Goldstein and Seth Mallios	1
PART I. Archaeologies of Resilience and Persistence	7
1. Neighborhood Archaeology at Seventeenth-Century Mission Santa Catalina de Guale Elliot H. Blair	10
2. A Kashaya Village (CA-SON-174) at Fort Ross in the 1840s–1850s: A Case Study in Historical Anthropology Glenn J. Farris	32
3. Orthogonal Thought and Architectures of Resilience, Community, and Historical Minstrelsy at the Nathan Harrison Cabin Site Seth Mallios	47
4. Holistic, Diachronic, and Broadly Comparative: The “Lightfoot Holy Trinity” and the Historical Anthropology of Colonial California Lee M. Panich	67
5. Kent Lightfoot and the Zooarchaeology of Traditional Foodways in California Thomas A. Wake	83

PART II. Theoretical and Methodological Innovations in Archaeology	105
6. Lightening Archaeology's Footprint: Archival Surveys and Ground-Penetrating Radar on the West Coast Scott Byram	107
7. Walipo Practitioners among the Kashia and Coast Miwok: Lukeria Aipau Myers and Her Metini Lineage's Role in Fort Ross Archaeology and Ethnography Sandra E. Hollimon	116
8. Turning the Tables: Interpreting the Deep Past in Light of Insights from the Recent Past Kathleen L. Hull	133
PART III. Engagement with Contemporary People and Current Issues	147
9. Archaeology, Historical Ecology, and the Revitalization of Indigenous Land Stewardship Rob Q. Cutbrell	149
10. Telling Survivance: Connecting the Past with Present in Archaeologies of Colonialism Sara L. Gonzalez	173
11. An Archaeology of Multiethnicity in Hawaiian Ranching Communities Peter R. Mills	190
12. Rethinking "Long-Term": Time Immemorial and Archaeology in an Era of Self-Dealing and Sacrilegious Destruction Tsim D. Schneider	203
PART IV. Conducting Archaeology with Honor, Humor, and Humility	221
13. Transformative Relationships and Enduring Partnerships in Archaeological Practice Barbara L. Voss	223
14. Curios and Collections: The Lightfoot Lab Legacy through Little Things Left Behind Alec Apodaca and Michael Grone	242

15.	A Testament to Kent Lightfoot's Academic Legacy Antoinette M. Martinez and Frank E. Bayham	260
16.	Lightfoot Living: Practicing Humility, Care, and Collaboration in Archaeology Stephen W. Silliman	277
	Afterword David Hurst Thomas	289
	Index	293