

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction
Storying Black Girlhoods on Educational Terrain	1
Esther O. Obito with Lucía Mock Muñoz de Luna
Chapter 1
Black Girl Cartography: Black Girlhood and Place-Making in Education Research	27
Tamara T. Butler
Chapter 2
Dear Toni Morrison: On Black Girls as Makers of Theories and Worlds	50
Katelyn M. Campbell, Lauryn DuPree, and Lucía Mock Muñoz de Luna
Chapter 3
Queer Like Me: Black Girlhood Sexuality on the Playground, under the Covers, and in the Halls of Academia	78
Adilia E. E. James
Chapter 4
Black Girls and the Pipeline from Sexual Abuse to Sexual Exploitation to Prison	88
Nadine M. Finigan-Carr
Chapter 5
Modern-Day Manifestations of the Scarlet Letter: Othered Black Girlhoods, Deficit Discourse, and Black Teenage Mother Epistemologies in the Rural South	112
Taryrn T. C. Brown
Chapter 6
“You Know, Let Me Put My Two Cents In”: Using Photovoice to Locate the Educational Experiences of Black Girls	148
Lateasha Meyers

Chapter 7
“They Were Like Family”: Locating Schooling and Black Girl Navigational Practices in Richmond, Virginia	172
Renée Wilmot
Chapter 8
On Young Ghanaian Women Being, Becoming, and Belonging in Place	200
Susan E. Wilcox
Chapter 9
A Luo Girl’s Inheritance	222
Esther O. Obito
Conclusion
As Queer as a Black Girl: Navigating Toward a Transnational Black Girlhood Studies	248
Lucía Mock Muñoz de Luna with Esther O. Obito
Index	263