

Contents

List of Figures	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction.
Engaging with Jolting Events in Art and Fieldwork Petra Rethmann and Helena Wulff	1
Part I. Experiencing and Conceptualizing the Exceptional
Chapter 1.
To Be Stunned: Uncanny Experiences and Uncertainty in ‘Ordinary’ Fieldwork Deborah Reed-Danahay	15
Chapter 2.
Looking at the African Masks at Musée du Trocadéro – He Understood ... Thomas Fillitz	32
Chapter 3.
Art and Anthropology in Graphic Form: Exceptional Experience and Extraordinary Collaboration in the Making of Light in Dark Times Alisse Waterston and Charlotte Corden	47

Chapter 4.
Exceptional Experiences in Academic Life	69
Moshe Shokeid
Chapter 5.
The Exceptionalism of Art as Disclosure of Deepest Truth: Stanley Spencer and the Look of Love	89
Nigel Rapport
Part II. Literary Realms of the Exceptional
Chapter 6. Haunted Reading/Haunting Johnson	109
Petra Rethmann
Chapter 7.
Sacred Muses: The Lake Goddess in Flora Nwapa's Literary Worldmaking	123
Paula Uimonen
Chapter 8.
Experiential Literary Ethnography: How Creative Writing Techniques Can Capture the Cultural Value of Live Arts-Based Experiences	138
Ellen Wiles
Part III. Exceptional Visual and Practice Experiences
Chapter 9. Lighting Praxis: Lighting Aesthetics and Creativity Narratives in Professional Cinematography	155
Cathy Greenhalgh
Chapter 10.
'Hammered by the Image': Exceptional Experiences of Art as Aesthetic Impact	172
Helena Wulff
Chapter 11.
Shaking up Worlds, Opening up Horizons: Contemporary Dance Experiences in Ramallah and Beyond	189
Ana Laura Rodríguez Quiñones

Chapter 12.

Participant Growing-Places in and of the World: Rendering the Transformative Atmosphere of a Contemporary Opera in the Making 205

Maxime Le Calvé

Afterword. The Sixth Sense 225

Thomas Hylland Eriksen

Index 231