

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
List of Maps, Tables and Figures	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction. Towards Engaged Ontographies of Animist Developments in Amerindian South America	1
Juan Javier Rivera Andía
Part I. Securing Body and Wealth
Chapter 1
On the Wings of Inspiration: Ritual Efficacy, Dancing Flamingos and Divine Mediation among Pastoralists and Herd Animals in Isluga, Chile	73
Penelope Z. Dransart
Chapter 2
Southern Sacrifice and Northern Sorcery: Mountain Spirits and Encantos in the Peruvian Andes	97
Marieka Sax
Chapter 3
Marking Out the Bounds of Humanity in Tsachila Ritual	126
Montserrat Ventura i Oller
Chapter 4
Losing Part of Oneself: Channels of Communication between Humans and Non-humans	143
Francis Ferrié

Part II. Cohabitation and SharingChapter 5

- The Inkas Still Exist in the Ucayali Valley: What We Can Learn from Songs 167
Appendix: List of Inka Items from Song Lyrics 187
Bernd Brabec de Mori

Chapter 6

- On Quechua Relatedness to Contemporary and Ancient Dead 197
Guillermo Salas Carreño

Chapter 7

- ‘I’m Crying for the Beautiful Skin of the Jaguar’: Laments,
Non-humans and Conviviality among the Ayoreo of the Northern Chaco 224
Alfonso Otaegui

Chapter 8

- Substantiated Wealth: Morality, Local Economy and the Body
in Indigenous Amazonia 252
Minna Opas

Part III. Transformations and Slow TurbulencesChapter 9

- Signifying Others: The Musical Management of Social
Differences in Amazonia 277
Jonathan D. Hill

Chapter 10

- Inventing a New Verbal Art from Traditional Issues: The Evangelical Songs of the Suruí of Rondônia 300
Cédric Yvinec

Chapter 11

- Prosperity and the Flow of Vital Substances: Relating to Earth
Beings in Processes of Mobility in the Southern Peruvian Andes 326
Cecilie Vindal Ødegaard

Epilogue

- The Wild Boar Is Out Again and Knows Better than the Jaguar 352
Mark Münzel

- Index 365