

Contents

Introduction. Compliance: Politics, Sociability and the Constitution of Collective Life Will Rollason and Eric Hirsch	1
Chapter 1. ‘We Are Poor, So We Keep Quiet’ Anna Berglund	33
Chapter 2. Good People Doing Bad Things: Compliance Regimes in Organisations Steven Sampson	57
Chapter 3. Tax Compliance Dancing: The Importance of Time and Space in Taxing Multinational Corporations Lotta Björklund Larsen and Benedicte Brøgger	80
Chapter 4. Surveillance, Discipline and Care: Technologies of Compliance in a South African Tuberculosis Clinic Jonathan Stadler	104
Chapter 5. The Controversy of Voluntary Carbon Offsetting: Compliance by Proxy Steffen Dalsgaard	128
Chapter 6. Complying in the ‘Right’ Way: Competing Fiscal Rationales in Highland Bolivia and the Problem of ‘Compliance’ in Tax Studies Miranda Sheild Johansson	151
Chapter 7. ‘Making Safety Personal’: Safety Compliance, Labour and Ethics in Construction Sarah Winkler-Reid	170

Chapter 8. Compliant Rule-Bending: Migrants' Encounters with Italian Immigration Bureaucracy Anna Tuckett	190
Conclusion. Striving for Accommodation 'In the Middle of Things' Eric Hirsch and Will Rollason	208
Index	215