

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	xiv

Introduction. Commemoration and Cultural Meaning, Historic and Present Robert Spinelli and Robyn S. Lacy	1
--	---

Part I. Archaeological and Historical Examinations of Grief and Commemoration

Chapter 1. From Etruria to Lisbon: Archaeological Influences and Memory in Three Contemporary Cemeteries (Lisbon, Portugal) Tânia Manuel Casimiro and Joel Santos	13
---	----

Chapter 2. An Invitation to Mourn: Images of Funerals and Mourners in Funerary Ephemera of Late Eighteenth Century England Dan O'Brien	27
--	----

Chapter 3. Quantifying Trauma: Death, Data, and Memorial Collecting Kaylee P. Alexander	46
---	----

Chapter 4. Catharín na Leanbh (Village of Children): The Use of Cillíní for the Burial of the Unbaptized in Rural Ireland in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Ciara Henderson	62
---	----

Part II. Contemporary Grief and Commemoration

Chapter 5. Death, Bodies, Burial, and the Law: The Plight of Non-Federally Recognized Indigenous Groups in the United States Katie Stringer Clary, Carolyn Dillian, Acting Chief Cheryl Cail, and Chief Harold "Buster" Hatcher	81
---	----

Chapter 6. Absent Corpses. Violated Bodies: Grief within Violent Contexts Eliana Maniaci	95
--	----

Chapter 7. Commemoration through Absence and Presence at the Oklahoma City Memorial Linda Levitt	107
--	-----

Death, Commemoration, and Cultural Meaning
Past and Present

Edited by Robert Spinelli and Robyn S. Lacy
<https://www.berghahnbooks.com/title/SpinelliDeath>
Not for resale